Beyond the Books: Uncovering the Untold Stories of a Student Life

Through a series of powerful photographs, we invite you to witness the unseen realities of life as a Teknøy student.

From the daily challenges of balancing academic and personal responsibilities to the social issues that affect our diverse community, this photo magazine offers a unique perspective on the lived experiences of our peers. Join us as we explore the depths of our campus and uncover the stories that need to be told.

Despite his busy schedule, Bryle remains committed to his studies and is determined to achieve his goals. His story is a testament to the resilience and dedication of students who work hard to achieve their dreams.

Bryle's experience highlights the importance of financial aid for students who are struggling to pay for their tuition. Many students like him rely on part-time jobs to make ends meet, but this is not always enough.

Financial aid can help bridge the gap and provide students with the support they need to succeed.

“Light your way”

You could either ignite or extinguish the fire that burns in your soul. A fire that signifies your passion which determines your destination.

Shayne Avril Cimafranca

Amidst the baffling chemical reactions, there ignites a dream. A dream that may soon become a reality, it would seem. With hard work, passion, and unwavering dedication, A Chemical Engineer soon will rise, in aspiration.
